Religious Education Parental Pledge

Parents As Partners:

As Disciples of Christ, we are expected to behave in such a way as to show Christian charity towards each other. Living by example for our children, we Pledge that we will try to base our decisions and actions on the Six Pillars of Character⁴:

- 1. Be trustworthy.*
- 2. Be respectful.*
- 3. Be responsible.*
- 4. Be fair.*
- 5. Be caring.*
- 6. Be a good citizen.*

As parents wishing to raise our children in the loving guidance of the Catholic Faith, we Pledge that we will faithfully try to abide by the six precepts of the Catholic Church⁵:

- 1. Attending Mass on all Sundays and holy days of obligation.*
- 2. Receiving the Holy Eucharist during the Easter season.*
- 3. Confessing our sins at least once a year.*
- 4. Fasting and abstaining on appointed days.*
- 5. Observing the marriage laws of the Church.*
- 6. Contributing to the support of the Church.*

As Faithful members of the Universal Church, we Pledge that we will abide by the four pillars of faith which are the foundations upon which the Catholic Church is built. Each individual pillar represents a major component to Catholicism and all four together establish the core of Catholic belief and practice⁶:

- 1. The Ten Commandments.*
- 2. The Apostles' Creed and The Nicene Creed.*
- 3. The Seven Sacraments.*
- 4. The Our Father.*

As a Faith Community, demonstrating our love for God and our love for each other, we Pledge to hand down to our children the deposit of faith which the Apostles received from Jesus Christ, their divine teacher and guaranteed by the Magisterium of the Catholic Church. We Pledge to apply to ourselves the mysterious words of Jesus ... "My teaching is not mine, but his who sent me."^{iv}
